A video is available that conveys parts of today's message. You can watch it here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ReSJZjYSU1Y> .

This video is intended for Adventist ministry leaders. The idea is to help churches offer salvation to a large number of people in the community.

The Happiness4me website is essentially outreach oriented, and it presents the Bible as the key to enduring happiness (www.Happiness4me.info). It offers different "flavors" of the Adventist message, testimonials, free materials, and a church locator. The church locator map includes church name, address, driving directions and a link to your church website.

The Happiness4me website is advertised to the public in the streets and through other channels.

The Happiness4me website contains only Seventh-day Adventist materials. This page offers additional information on how and why a church should join the website: www.happiness4me.info/share .
